

Lead Kindergarten Teacher

Waldorf School at Moraine Farm is seeking a compassionate and dedicated Kindergarten teacher for the 2023-2024 school year. This could be the right job for you: Do you enjoy singing, practical work, storytelling, and the beauty and wonder of nature in all seasons? Concerned about preserving the magic and innocence of childhood? Ready to work with fellow staff members to bring Waldorf education to children in this modern and diverse world? If these questions peak your interest, too, then reach out to us! Key to this role is working with the foundations of Waldorf early childhood education to develop a curriculum that meets the children in a healthy, joyful, purposeful manner and lays the foundation for academic learning. The Kindergarten teacher works to build a healthy class community that is meaningful and beneficial to each child, their parents and the class collectively. In addition, the teacher serves the school through committee work and administrative responsibilities as part of the early childhood group.

Position Details: This is a full-time salaried position. Benefits may include health insurance, ongoing professional development, and tuition remission for children.

We recognize there are many paths that may have prepared you for this experience such as:

- Bachelor's Degree
- 1 – 2 years previous relevant classroom experience
- Teaching experience in a Waldorf school
- Have completed, or be willing to complete Waldorf Certification/Training
